

UNWED MOTHERS HATE FRACKING, NOW

The way you live your life is a statement against others'
like buying a Haydn record is a vote for the Green Party.

The timpani rolls in akin to Southwest tofu scrambles
and vegan food, we know, excludes minorities.

Tight gas wants out:
destruction's the conduit (we have only to stimulate the shallows).

Franz, you're instrumental to our broken, bastard lives.
