

A CANDID EXAMINATION OF JUSTIN TRUDEAU'S LEGACY

SEPTEMBER 29, 2026
978-1-77041-896-7, $39.95 CAN

Award-winning journalist David Olive presents a comprehensive dive into the life and political successes and setbacks of Justin Trudeau.

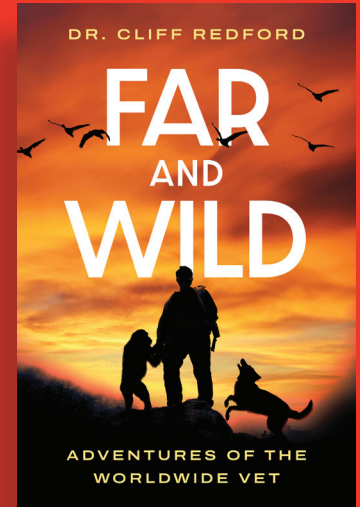

RECIPES AND ADVICE FOR LIFE'S HARDEST DAYS

SEPTEMBER 22, 2026
978-1-77041-843-1, $32.95 CAN

Part comic, part food memoir, part cookbook, Depression Cooking is a love letter to the sad, hungry, and exhausted versions of ourselves who always deserve care, community, and good food.

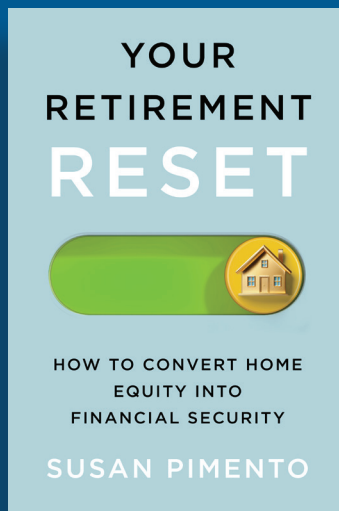

ADVENTURES OF THE WORLDWIDE VET

SEPTEMBER 15, 2026
978-1-77041-875-2, $26.95 CAN

Full of unforgettable encounters from veterinarian Dr. Cliff Redford's travels, Far and Wild shines a light on the deep bond between humans and animals.

RETIREMENT PLANNING FOR HOME OWNERS

SEPTEMBER 8, 2026
978-1-77041-897-4, $28.95 CAN

Your Retirement Reset shifts the mindset for retirees from fearing financial insecurity to using the resources they have, including home equity, to create the retirement they deserve.

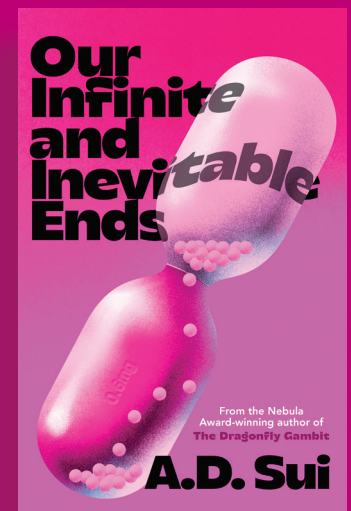

PART MEMOIR, PART INVESTIGATIVE JOURNALISM

OCTOBER 27, 2026
978-1-77041-824-0, $26.95 CAN

Through the lens of a tragic 1975 murder and a piercing critique of media narratives, journalist Ann Rauhala brings intimate partner violence out of the shadows.

THEY FOUND LOVE IN A HOPELESS PLACE

OCTOBER 27, 2026
978-1-77041-891-2, $24.95 CAN

Taking place on a near-future Earth devastated by climate change, this sapphic sci-fi thriller is a love letter to hope in the bleakest of times.